Sydney Sheffield plays Belle in the MYACT production of "Beauty and the Beast Jr.," playing today through Sunday.

'Beauty Jr.'

Mountain Youth and Community Theatre, formerly Meyer Hideout Inc. and Sonora Children's Theatre, will present "Disney's Beauty and the Beast Jr." at 7 p.m. today through Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday.

The production will take place in MYACT's new building at 14372 Cuesta Court, off Tuolumne Road east of Sonora. Tickets are $8 in advance for adults or $10 at the door, $8 for students and senior citizens, ages 4 and under free.

Advance tickets are available at Bob's Greenley Pharmacy, Mountain Bookshop, Schnoogs and www.MountainYouthACT.com.

Fishing exhibit

Ironstone Vineyards will present an antique fishing gear exhibit from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. every day through Sept. 23 at its Heritage Museum.

The exhibit will feature Kentucky, English and Skelton reels, along with many other varieties.

The collection is provided by collector and appraiser Bert Kronnick, a member of the Old Reel Collector Association and National Fishing Lure Collectors Club.

He will also offer appraisal clinics during the exhibit on Aug. 4, Aug. 31 and Sept. 22.

For more information, call 586-7726 or go online to ironstonemuseum.blogspot.com.

Quilts on display

Hand-made quilts and wall hangings are on display and available for purchase in the Groveland Library Book Nook from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Saturdays through the end of September.

Used books for children and adults, fiction and non-fiction, also are available at discount prices.

Fiber arts meeting

The Studio 49 Fiber Arts Group will meet Saturday, Aug. 11, at the Tuolumne County Library.

The meeting will be held from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Anyone interested in spinning, weaving, knitting, crocheting or any other fiber art is invited to attend.
